

1. The solid shapes and dynamic elements of Graff's Ametis shower, by designer Davide Oppizzi, blend together harmoniously. Through Klaff's, Danbury, 203-792-3903, South Norwalk, 203-866-1603, klaffs.com, graff-faucets.com. 2. The Kartell by Laufen collection is an innovative collaboration that features new washbasins made of revolutionary SaphirKeramik material. Through Bender Plumbing Supply, New Haven, 203-787-4288, benderplumbing.com, laufen.com. 3. Brizo's Virage single-handle freestanding tub filler adds function and style to the bathroom. Through Luxury Bath Center, Stamford, 203-977-8350, luxurybathcenter.com, brizo.com. 4. Nella Vetrina's Vov is a spacious bathtub with a smooth, egg shape—perfect for relaxing and regenerating. Nella Vetrina (T), D&D, NYC, 646-415-9150, nellavetrina.com. 5. Ann Sacks's Scribe is a collection of water jet mosaics, etched to create a whimsical surface texture. Shown here in the Aquaria design. Ann Sacks, Greenwich, 203-622-8884, annsacks.com. 6. Agatha Ruiz designed a colorful tile collection for Tile of Spain's Pamesa with hearts, flowers and geometric shapes. Through Terra Tile & Marble, Briarcliff Manor, NY, 914-923-4295, terratileandmarble.com, pamesa.com, tileofspainusa.com. 7. Porcelanosa Grupo's L'Antic Colonial's Spirit II collection by A-cero consisting of a washbasin, mirror and two tile models, presents an interplay between lines and symmetry. Porcelanosa, Greenwich, 203-698-7618, porcelanosa-usa.com.