

Cubism

With their pure geometrical compositions of cubes, rectangles and right angles, the Graff Solar faucets are a stand-out element of any bathroom. They come in the traditional chrome and steel finish, as well as matte black. Here you have a single lever basin mixer and a three-hole basin mixer. (graff-faucets.com)

CEMENT STYLE

Chorus, the soap dispenser and brush holder, fashioned out of concrete impresses with its unique design. It's inspired by the designer Ili Tyagi's memory of over-full sacks arriving in Indian markets. ₹5,000. (craftbeton.com)

Multi-tasker

This Graff Aquasense Dual function ceiling-mounted showerhead is fitted with body sprays, touch pad and handshower, performing many functions. (graff-faucets.com)

GREEN DESIGN

Design with green intentions, Fima's HC faucet is a modular system that regulates flow and temperature of water. It has a minimal design with a rectangular geometry. The handles allow an intuitive movement - by pulling them to yourself, the flow of water can be opened, regulated and diverted. It also offers a shelf or a flat surface to keep small objects. ### GET INTELLIGENT

Minimalism and ergonomic comfort are the hallmark of the sculpted Veil Intelligent Toilet by Kohler. It offers ultimate hygiene with features like integrated bidet, LED nightlight, hands-free opening and closing, all of which can be controlled on a touchscreen LCD remote control. The stainless steel bidet wand offers adjustable spray, position, water pressure, temperature, pulsating and oscillating functions. The self-cleaning function uses UV light and electrolysed water systems to sanitise the bidet wand surface. Price ₹4,00,000. Turning on a faucet can be a calming experience. The Kohler Beitou faucet is designed to allow natural cascade of water leading to a serene feeling. (Kohler.co.in)

Jewellery in the bath

Innovative design is the crowning glory of Jaquar's Artize Tiara and Tailwater faucets. With its unusual form of echoing ovals, Tiara looks more like a jewellery. Tailwater is inspired by the fluid lines of contemporary architecture. Designed to be deck-mounted, the tap widens and curves slightly at the base in a delicate balance of curves. (artize.com)
