

10

11

10 The simple silhouette of Piero Lissoni's Fisher Island bathtub for Boffi is inspired by the exclusivity and serenity of the island off the coast of Miami Beach after which it's named. The classic tub is perfect for a deep soak.

boffi.com

11 The Dressage free-standing vanity, designed by Nespoli and Novara Design Studio for Graff, is fully customizable and comes in walnut, oak, and wenge. The base is inspired by horse-racing hurdles, and the mirror resembles a prosecco flute.

graff-faucets.com

12 The 120 washbasin from Kartell by Laufen is part of a bathroom collection designed to be an integrated architecture, each piece flexible to its surroundings and able to satisfy all aesthetic tastes. It is available in three muted colors.

kartellbylaufen.com