

① Taking inspiration from Southeast Asian tribal rain drums, the Kamala vessel-style sink by Kohler crafted in brass is covered with elaborate low-relief patterns like dots, ridges, scrolls and links. The centre of the basin features a ring of columns, which direct the water flow to the integrated drain area.
(www.kohler.co.in)

② The bold and contemporary Oman stone bathtub by Apaiser is an organic masterpiece for the contemporary homes. Available in two sizes, large (1760 mm) and small (1500 mm), the hand-crafted bathtub seeks its inspiration from the ancient Omani culture. Designed to complement sophisticated bathroom spaces, the bathtub makes for a dramatic piece.
(www.apaiser.com)

③ The semi-precious quartz stone basin from the house of Exhibit D by Gautam has been carved nimbly out of a single rock. The edges of the basin are left organic in order to give it a raw look. The nature-inspired basin can be customised in any precious or semi-precious stone of your choice.

Dressage by Graff aims to lend a luxurious touch to your bathroom with its bold black finish. Compact and functional, it comes with a washbasin in Corian DuPont material and solid wood. The Dressage is accompanied by a tray for cosmetics, a towel hook, a chest of drawers and a movable mirror. Let this bold creation be a reflection of statement style.
(www.graff-faucets.com)